Figure 1 consists of two maps. The left map, titled "Location of County within State", shows the state of Montana divided into its 16 counties. Yellowstone County, located in the southern part of the state, is highlighted in orange. The right map, titled "Sheet Location within Entry", shows a large yellow rectangle representing the state. A small blue rectangle is located in the bottom-left corner of the yellow rectangle, indicating the specific location of the map sheet within the state.
